Description

An elegant and refined French porcelain dinner service by L. Bernardaud & Cie, Limoges, from the sought-after "Rimbaud" pattern, likely dating to the mid-20th century, circa 1950-1970. Crafted in fine white Limoges porcelain, this sophisticated ensemble is distinguished by its delicately embossed basketweave motif, softly scalloped contours, and refined gilt decoration that frames each piece with understated luxury. The service displays the timeless craftsmanship for which Bernardaud is internationally celebrated, combining subtle relief work with elegant gold detailing. Particularly charming is the covered tureen, crowned with a sculptural finial inspired by an artichoke or stylized floral bud, lending sculptural elegance to the table. The restrained palette of luminous
