Description

Sunglass mirror circa 1950 stamped on the back "CHATY VALLAURIS A.M.". (Alpes Maritimes) Wrought iron structure featuring a radiant motif of heart-shaped scrolls and spikes set around a frame adorned with a mirror. In good original condition, dimensions: 44 cm diameter X 55 cm high with its original chain. Designed under the direction of Gilbert Poillerat (1902-1988) French decorator and wrought-iron artist. Trained at the Ecole Boulle around 1920, he quickly developed a passion for working with iron. In just a few years, he became one of France's leading wrought-iron artists. An admirer of 17th- and 18th-century art and the Baroque style, he drew inspiration from it while creating highly innovative decorative objects. In the 40's, he imagined a metal mirror with a sun-like
