

A Pair Of 17th-century Miniatures Painted On Copper With Bronze Frames.

500 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting on copper

Description

A refined pair of antique miniatures depicting two gentlemen in period attire, executed in oil on copper in the 17th century. The figures are portrayed with great attention to facial details and the elegant collars typical of 17th-century fashion, elements that lend the works historical charm and great decorative appeal. The miniatures are enhanced by their original oval gilded bronze frames, finely crafted and complete with an upper ring for wall mounting. The copper support lends the painting particular chromatic depth and luminosity, a characteristic highly valued in small-format works of the period. Excellent overall condition for its age, with slight signs of wear. DIMENSIONS: Miniature height 6 cm - Miniature width 5 cm Total height with frame 10 cm - Total width with frame 7 cm - CONTACT
