Description

Suite of 6 chairs designed by Dieter Waeckerlin for Idealheim in the 1960s. Swiss modernist design with minimalist, architectural lines, featuring a particularly elegant and graphic black lacquered steel structure. The seats and backrests have been fully restored with new foam and superb Casal "Amara" fabric in a luminous chartreuse green hue, offering a refined contrast with the sobriety of the structure. A sculptural and comfortable set, emblematic of mid-century Swiss design, ideal around a contemporary or modernist table. Condition: fully restored, excellent condition. New Casal Amara fabric and new foam.
