Description

Pair of Empire mahogany dolphin armchairs - 19th century
Elegant pair of Empire period mahogany and mahogany veneered armchairs, resting on sheathed front legs and featuring a beautiful sober and balanced line characteristic of the Consulat / Empire style. The scrolled armrests are supported by carved consoles decorated with dolphins. The slightly sloping backrests offer remarkable seating comfort. Very fine craftsmanship with a rich, warm-toned wood patina. The armchairs retain their upholstery covered in mustard-yellow fabric highlighted with a braid of upholsterer nails. Elegant furniture that would fit perfectly into a classic, contemporary or decorative interior. Good overall structural condition. Some traces of use and minor wear and tear consistent with
