PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Empire Period Mahogany And Gilt Bronze Writing Desk

980 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Width : 91

Height : 146

Depth : 39

Description

Empire-period mahogany and gilt bronze writing desk, opening with a flap revealing an elegant interior fitted with small drawers and shelves.The black leather-wrapped writing surface rests on side compasses and provides a comfortable workspace.The cabinet features a sober, architectural front, adorned with gilded bronzes decorated with mascarons and resting on claw feet characteristic of the Empire style.The top is topped with original veined gray marble.The refined, functional interior features several drawers with bronze ring sockets and a storage niche.Very fine quality wood with a particularly decorative mahogany grain.French work from the early 19th century, Empire period.Dimensions:Height: 146 cmWidth: 91 cmDepth: 39 cmGood overall condition with

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

wear and minor restorations in keeping with the furniture's age and use.