Description

Pair of "Pasha" armchairs by Pedrali - Contemporary design
Elegant pair of "Pasha" model armchairs by Pedrali, emblematic of contemporary design inspired by classic Louis XV lines revisited in a modern, minimalist spirit. Made from transparent molded polycarbonate, these armchairs seduce with their fluid, sculptural silhouette combining comfort, visual lightness and timeless elegance. The wraparound backrest, generous armrests and curved legs recall the forms of Baroque furniture while offering a resolutely contemporary aesthetic. Thanks to their transparency, these armchairs fit perfectly into all types of interiors, classic as well as modern, without weighing down the space.
