Description

19th century reliquary Reliquary made using the Paperolles technique, a decorative technique that uses narrow strips of gold on the edge to form loops, circles and other figures, often in association with metal wires to create a 3-dimensional subject. Our reliquary features an oval medallion in relief at its center, depicting "The Holy Family" in a period mahogany frame. This type of reliquary was often made in convents by nuns, each piece being unique and very meticulous. Dimensions unframed H 13.5 cm x L 17 cm with frame H 20 cm x L 23 cm.
