Description

Louis XVI style walnut drop-leaf table, late 19th century work, early XXe century. Elegant oval walnut drop-leaf table resting on four tapered legs finished with refined bronze sabots. The top features beautiful wood graining as well as a warm antique patina. Thanks to its flip-top system, this table offers practical use while retaining a light, harmonious line. The slender base and balanced proportions recall Louis XVI-style productions of the mid-20e century. Can be used as a dining table as well as a coffee table or occasional table.
