Description

Henri Duvieux (Paris, circa 1855 - 1902) was a French painter of the 2e half of the XIXe century, influenced by Orientalism and Impressionism. He usually signed in the lower right-hand corner: "H. Duvieux" or "Henri Duvieux". Duvieux used a luminous palette close to Turner's seascapes to render intense light, Duvieux debuted at the 1880 Salon with Vue de Venise and Vue de Constantinople.
