900 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Height : 50

Description

Important, richly ornate early 19th-century gilt bronze and patina clock depicting an elegant young woman in a romantic scene beside a flower-filled Gothic aedicula. The circular dial with Roman numerals is framed by a spectacular rocaille decoration and finely chased floral garlands. The moved base rests on powerful scrolled feet in the Louis XV taste. Very fine quality of carving and gilding, with a refined contrast between the black patina and the brilliance of the gilded bronze. Antique mechanical movement. Beautiful decorative presence for mantel, console or salon furniture. Era: early 19th century. Dimensions: Height: 50 cm. Good overall condition with wear and patina consistent with age. Dial showing some visible signs of use.
