

Mary Grégory Baluster Vase On Pedestal In Cobalt-blue Enameled Glass, Decorated With A Young Girl

Description

- Mary Grégory (1856-1908), baluster-shaped vase on circular pedestal in cobalt-blue polychrome-enameled glass fitted with two side handles with striated snail-shaped scrolls in hot-applied translucent glass.- Flared neck and serrated cut. - Decorated with vegetation and a young girl dressed in Victorian style with a cup in her hand feeding seeds to birds. Period 3rd quarter of the 19e century circa 1875-1900.- Mary Gregory (1856-24 May 1908) was an American artist specializing in enamelled glass.- From 1880 circa 1890, she worked with her sister at the Boston and Sandwich Glass Company. - She has the distinction of having depicted in her works only Victorian-style children (dressed in sailor suits or crinolines) amid nature settings, quite resembling Kate Greenaway's illustrations,
