Victorian Sterling Silver Four-piece Tea Service By Atkin Brothers, Sheffield 1892

7 500 EUR

Signature : Atkin Brothers
Period : 19th century
Condition : Parfait état
Material : Sterling silver
Length : 10 cm
Width : 17.5 cm
Height : 23 cm

Description

A magnificent Victorian sterling silver four-piece tea service by Atkin Brothers, dating to 1892 and assayed in Sheffield.
Executed in an elegant shaped oblong form, the set comprises a hot water pot, teapot, sugar bowl and cream jug, all richly engraved with refined floral swags and vacant cartouches. The engraving is crisp and well balanced throughout, with beautifully arranged garlands framing the central reserves, left intentionally blank for personalisation.
The design reflects the refined late Victorian taste, combining architectural structure with soft curvature. The proportions across all four pieces are harmonious, and the set displays a strong sense of unity in both decoration and form. The harp handles are well shaped and comfortable in

Dealer

Gillers Antiques
Specialists in 19th-century European silverware, porcelain and décor
Mobile : +44 (0) 7341 404636

Buntingford SG9 0PY

the hand, while both pots remain fully functional and hold liquid without leakage, a particularly desirable practical feature.
The interiors of the sugar bowl and cream jug retain a warm gilt finish, which adds richness to the presentation and enhances their visual appeal. The surfaces remain bright and reflective, giving the service excellent cabinet presence as well as practical usability.
Measurements
Maker: Atkin Brothers
Assay office: Sheffield
Date: 1892
Total weight: 1833 g / 58.93 t oz
Hot water pot: 23 cm tall / 9.1´´, 17.5 cm wide / 6.9´´, 10 cm deep / 3.9´´, capacity 1400 ml
Teapot: 13.5 cm tall / 5.3´´, 26.5 cm wide / 10.4´´, 11 cm deep / 4.3´´, capacity 1250 ml
Sugar bowl: 10 cm tall / 3.9´´, 19.8 cm wide / 7.8´´, 9.2 cm deep / 3.6´´
Cream jug: 12.5 cm wide / 4.9´´, 6.5 cm deep / 2.6´´
Condition
Excellent antique condition. No visible dents or structural issues. The surfaces remain bright and well preserved, with crisp engraving throughout. Both pots are fully usable and hold liquid correctly. The set presents exceptionally well.
Shipping & Packaging
The shipping cost includes professional packaging, full insurance, and tracked delivery, ensuring the parcel reaches you safely and securely.
Please take time to view all photographs carefully, as they form an important part of the description and provide an accurate representation of the item's details and condition. Questions are welcome.