Description

A refined pair of Louis XV-style French bedside tables from the late 19th century, each topped with an elegant Carrara marble top. These harmonious pieces highlight the graceful curves, scalloped belts and carved cabriole legs characteristic of the Louis XV style, combined with the warmth and depth of richly toned wood. Each bedside table features a single drawer surmounting a recessed panel door, offering practical storage space while retaining a light decorative presence. The original marble tops feature a soft patina and natural variations, adding texture and authenticity. Subtle marks of use, testifying to their age, contribute to the charm and patinated elegance of this pair. Perfect at the bedside, on either side of a sofa, or used as side tables in a refined interior, these bedside tables
