Description

A two-section sideboard made of solid chestnut and various woods, crafted in central Italy in the late 17th century, characterized by the simple, elegant lines typical of the domestic furnishings of the nobility and monasteries of the period. The piece features a sturdy and well-proportioned structure, with two large upper drawers above a pair of paneled doors. The square panels, side pilasters, and cornice attest to high-quality craftsmanship, marked by the formal rigor and functionality that distinguish late 17th-century Central Italian production. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: The artwork is sold with a certificate of authenticity and guarantee. We take care of and organize the shipping of purchased artworks, both within Italy and internationally,
