

Our Lady Of The Immaculate Conception, Polychrome Wood, Spain, Baroque, 18th Century.

700 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Length : 18

Width : 16

Height : 46,5

Description

Wooden sculpture covered with multicolored polychrome representing the Virgin of the Immaculate Conception. Mary is depicted standing, hands clasped in prayer. She stands on the globe, symbolizing her reign as Queen of the World and the Heavens. Just below Mary's feet, at the top of the globe, are sculpted three winged cherubs, underscoring the celestial and sacred nature of the scene. The globe is coiled by a serpent. Mary wears a red dress (tunic) symbolizing humanity and the blood of Christ, and a deep dark blue (navy blue) mantle (pallium) representing heaven and divine mystery. The mantle is adorned with a wide, richly gilded border and a gilded lining. Spain (?), Baroque, 18th century. Height 46.5 cm, base 18 x 16 cm. Good condition, slight loss of polychromy

Dealer

Galerie la Belle Epoque

Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : +48 601852083

Bukowska 17

Poznan 60193

and cracks. Free delivery within the European Union! I send parcels by insured courier (DPD or DHL). All items are carefully packed. Payment by international bank transfer. I will issue a certificate of authenticity on request.