Description

Seal of the parish priest of Notre-Dame de Parfondru church This ecclesiastical seal, dated to the 13th-14th centuries, is attributed to the parish priest of Notre-Dame de Parfondru church. Legend: S'CURATIS DE PRO(F) UNDO VICO This Latin inscription can be expanded and interpreted as "seal of the parish priest of Profundovico / Parfondru". Iconography: The field of the seal depicts a seated cleric holding a child on his lap. This scene, of a religious and symbolic nature, could evoke a figure of sanctity or a representation linked to spiritual protection and Christian teaching. Dating: 13th-14th centuries. This type of seal was used to authenticate deeds issued by parish or ecclesiastical authority
