Description

Mithé Espelt Hand Mirror - Model "Moineau", dated 1968. Discover this iconic and fully documented piece by renowned French ceramist Mithé Espelt. This hand mirror, a true gem of mid-twentieth-century craftsmanship, is the model entitled "Moineau", listed in Antoine Candau's catalog raisonné (p. 156), "Pop Art" period (1960-1973). This piece, dated 1968, bears witness to the artist's bold creativity. The central decoration depicts an elegant purple bird, highlighted by fine glazed earthenware work on a sandy background, typical of this series. The whole is sublimated by a crackled gilding characteristic of the workshop's savoir-faire, framing the mirror with refinement. A small defect at the rear (see photo 8)
