Description

Lively oil on panel painting by the Tuscan painter Mario Tamburini, signed lower right and dated 1968. The artwork depicts an elegant floral composition with bright red poppies arranged in a woven basket, accompanied by small daisies and wheat stalks. The free and textured brushwork, characteristic of the artist's style, enhances the vivid reds and oranges, creating a composition of remarkable decorative impact. The painting is presented in an elegant ivory and gilt lacquered frame, perfectly harmonizing with the luminous tones of the composition and giving the work a refined and pleasant presence. Born in Casciana Terme in 1914, Mario Tamburini is appreciated for his landscapes and still lifes distinguished by a spontaneous painting style and a sensitive use of light and color. A bright and decorative
