Description

Elegant drawing by the French school of the XVIIIe century, attributed to Louis Roland Trinquesse. 51 x 41 cm. The work is presented in its frame and under glass. This work, entitled "Une élégante assise", is executed in black stone and red chalk, enhanced with white chalk on laid paper. The female figure, depicted in a graceful, natural attitude, illustrates all the refinement of French drawing in the Age of Enlightenment. The mastery of the line, the softness of the highlights and the elegance of the model are fully reminiscent of Trinquesse's hand and his taste for intimate scenes and refined portraits. This is a fine quality drawing. A fine quality drawing of delicate charm, testifying to the sensitivity and grace characteristic of French art of the XVIIIe century.
