

Groupe erotica Femme Au Phallus By Bruno Zach From The Michel Simon Sale In 1977

380 EUR

Signature : Bruno Zach (1891-1945)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Biscuit

Length : 13,5

Height : 17

Description

Statuette representing a young woman in nightie and stockings embracing a giant phallus. The artist is Bruno Zach*, the material seems to be marble powder. I think 1930-1950 period, underneath a label mentions the Michel Simon sale in 1977 where this group must have been sold under the title "the hugger". Delivery possible by chronopost for: France 30EUR Europe 60EUR Others 90EUR* Bruno Zach is an Austrian art deco sculptor of Ukrainian origin who worked in the early and mid-twentieth century. As a young man, he emigrated to Austria and studied at the Vienna Academy with sculptors Hans Bitterlich and Josef Müllner. He worked in Austria and Germany. Famous for his fine bronzes made for the Wiener Bronze, or Vienna Bronze Factory, Zach, of Ukrainian origin, was best known for his figures

Dealer

A Brocannique

Antique dealer, Asian and world antiquities

Tel : 0297253637

Mobile : 0664293786

19 rue de la motte

Pontivy 56300

of coquettish, sexually liberated young women.