Description

An elegant, veneered chest of drawers with fine inlay work, made in the late 19th century. The piece stands out for its excellent craftsmanship, the refined arrangement of the wood grains, and the exquisite inlay work that adorns the front and sides. Comprising three large drawers, it features a slender structure supported by elegant truncated pyramid-shaped legs. The rich grain of the wood and the attention to detail attest to high-quality craftsmanship. The piece requires only light conservative restoration but is overall in excellent condition, with a sound and solid structure.
