Description

Meuble d'Appui Art Nouveau - École de Nancy, circa 1905 Elegant walnut sideboard opening with four drawers, including two small central drawers framed by open side niches. It features a carved decoration of stylized foliage, bronze handles with floral motifs and a remarkable walnut veneered top with a radiating butterfly-wing design. By the quality of its cabinetwork, its supple lines and its plant ornamentation, this piece of furniture is part of the production of the École de Nancy of the early XXe century. Very good condition. Functional locks and four antique keys present. Dimensions: Height: 101 cm Width: 96 cm Depth: 48 cm
