

Watercolor , Miniature Portrait Of An Elegant Woman From The Directoire / Consulate Period 18th Ce

450 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Water color

Description

Charming painted miniature , depicting the portrait of a fine young woman. She wears a high-waisted Directoire-style dress, whose blue bodice is embellished with an enameled medallion and delicate white lace trim. The face, treated with finesse, reveals all the miniaturist's mastery in rendering complexions, eyes and hair details. The jewelry, particularly the earrings, are characteristic of the late XVIIIe century. The frame measures 11cm x 10cm , the miniature measures 6cm in diameter. Tre fine overall condition. A precious and refined art In the late XVIIIe and early XIXe centuries, miniatures were the preferred means of preserving the image of a loved one. Created with extreme meticulousness, these works were often offered as souvenirs, on the occasion of a wedding or an important family
