Description

Elegant Louis XVI-style méridienne in molded and rechambered wood in patinated gray tones, from the late 19th century. It stands on tapered legs decorated with small carved dice, and features two scrolled bedheads characteristic of the neoclassical taste. The ensemble is upholstered in a pink and cream striped fabric with a matching bolster, providing a beautiful decorative effect. Mattress in impeccable condition (80 by 165cm). This meridian seduces with its harmonious proportions and refined allure, ideal in a living room, bedroom or hallway. Beautiful patina from use contributing to its charm. Delivery in Metropolitan France 150EUR. Contact us for more information.
