

Vietnamese Porcelain Vase From The Hoi An Shipwreck (15th Century)

450 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Yuhuchun form vase in blue/white porcelain stoneware from the wreck off the coast of Hoi An (Vietnam). It is complete, with no breaks or cracks, the glaze slightly satin-finished. The very typical iron-red slip-stained bottom has been deliberately left uncleaned. Small oyster shells still present testify to its underwater origin.

Height: 15.3 cm. Weight: 250 g. Free shipping to France by Colissimo tracked. Please enquire for other countries. The wreck, discovered at 70 m deep and dated to the 15th century, was archaeologically exploited in 1997-1999 and its cargo of ceramics sold by Butterfields in San Francisco in 2000.
