Description

Oil on wood, signed lower right Baudry for Paul Baudry (1828-1886). Charming still life painted on wood, composed of a set of grape bunches in purple and pink hues, arranged naturally on a dark background. To the right, an upside-down bowl or vase introduces a note of sobriety and balance to the composition. The whole is treated with a deep, nuanced palette, where light reflections delicately animate the fruit and underline the contrast between the plant matter and the glass or metal object.
