

Set Of Two 18th Century Glass Cider Carafes

250 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Glass

Diameter : 10 cm

Height : 28 cm environ

Description

In very thick, blown glass, here are two 18th-century tavern carafe pitchers, known as cider carafes. They are soberly shaped and characteristic of the sober taste and style of the Enlightenment. Being handcrafted objects, one of the carafes is slightly larger than the other. Shipping in France and internationally, contact me for terms
