

Walking Stick With A Carved Lion-head Handle - Napoleon III

280 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Solid wood

Height : cm. 97

Description

Walking stick with a carved lion's head handle - Napoleon III
An extraordinary and prestigious walking stick in an aristocratic style, a true expression of timeless elegance and masterful craftsmanship. Crafted from finely sanded and polished natural wood, it is embellished with a magnificent hand-carved handle depicting a roaring lion's head, a symbol of strength, nobility, and prestige. The carving, rich in depth and detail, gives the piece a striking presence: the flowing mane, the proud expression, and the warm patina of the wood enhance the object's exclusive character. The harmoniously shaped shaft retains the authentic charm of the natural material, while the original metal tip completes the ensemble with refined simplicity. More than just a walking stick, this is a true collector's item and piece of

Dealer

Anna Delmonte Antichità

ANTIQUES furnitures

Tel : +39 3384989679

Vico Castello, 4

Imperia 18100

décor, ideal for elegant settings, formal studies, classic residences, or high-end antique collections. Features: * Dimensions: height 96 cm - handle height 9.5 cm, width 5 cm * Period: Napoleon III * Hand-carved handle in the shape of a lion's head * Natural wood with beautiful grain and period patina * Original metal tip * Excellent decorative presence * Good condition with slight signs of age, attesting to its authenticity A rare and highly charming piece, capable of evoking the elegance of gentlemen from another era.