Description

Watercolor depicting the interior of his kitchen by artist Louis Agricol Montagné(1879-1960). Born in Avignon, he trained with Paul Sain, whom he helped in 1900 to paint the decor of the Train Bleu, a famous restaurant in the Gare de Lyon. Dividing his time between Paris and Avignon, he was director of the Ecole des Beaux-Arts d'Avignon (1920-1928) and curator of the Musée Pierre de Luxembourg in Villeneuve les Avignon. The representation of his kitchen is a recurrent subject in his watercolors, probably when the climate did not allow outdoor work. The watercolor is signed lower right and framed in a modern frame, in the absence of which it measures 44.5x32 cm.
