

Carved And Lacquered Console, Late Louis XV Period

1 250 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Width : 97

Height : 79

Depth : 49

Description

Delightful console table in white relacquered wood, molded and carved, the belt decorated with a knot of ribbons and openwork geometric motifs, holding garlands of foliage by hearts, standing on two scrolled legs decorated with volutes, rocaille cartels, acanthus leaves, joined by a spacer decorated with foliage and supporting a fire pot in the antique style (minor accidents and restoration). Painted wood top in imitation of veined brown marble (may be later). Transition from the Louis XV and Louis XVI periods. Good condition.

Dealer

Cléry Antiques

18th century furnitures and fine art objects

Tel : 0689602398

Mobile : 06 89 60 23 98

86 rue de Cléry

Paris 75002