Description

Joseph Marie Thomas LAMBEAUX VAN ANTWERPEN known as jef LANBEAUX (1852-1908) Born in Antwerp on January 14, 1852 and died in Brussels on June 5, 1908, Jef LAMBEAUX was a Belgian sculptor whose studio was located on rue de savoie. He won a medal for his debut in 1881 and a gold medal at the Brussels exhibition. A great circus enthusiast, a man of the people, Jef LAMBEAUX never lost his childlike wonder at the spectacle of wrestlers, boxers and other bodybuilders who used to perform in the squares. He was appointed an officer of the Order of Leopold and the Order of Bavaria.
