Description

These are antique items: they are antique terracotta marionettes or puppets, dressed in fabric, dating from the 19th century. Materials and Date: These figures were produced in Italy in the 19th century, using materials such as terracotta for the heads and fabric for the clothing. They depict characters from the Commedia dell'Arte and are of great interest to collectors of folk art or vintage toys. Condition: These pieces show minor signs of age, such as original patina or wear on the clothing, and have some missing parts that attest to their authenticity. Sizes range from 13 cm in height to 24 cm for the largest.
