Description

Beautiful neoclassical bronze clock inspired by Greek Antiquity representing a muse. Louis XVI style in gilded and patinated bronze, with antique bas-relief. The draped figure reclining next to a lyre and a book is reminiscent of Euterpe, the muse of music and lyric poetry. This type of iconography was very popular during the Second Empire, and a very refined salon clock. Mechanics complete, gilding slightly worn in some places. Signature of A.Carrier Fecit on the lyre.DimensionsHeight: 20.42 inLength: 21.25 inDepth: 8.26 inPeriod : 1855-1875Origine : France, ParisMaterial s: Bronze
