Description

Refined Venetian trumeau veneered and inlaid in solid walnut and crotchet. The trumeau features an upper section topped with elegant geometric and floral scroll carvings, adding further refinement, and two mirrored doors, which open with a lock and reveal three fabric-lined shelves. Its curved design is also elegant, both on the sides and front. The lower section features a drop-down top containing four small drawers, and three large drawers, ergonomically designed for storing objects, complete with bronze handles and locks. The walnut carvings on the sides, featuring a phytomorphic motif, and the geometric inlays are also distinctive. This is a tasteful and elegant piece of furniture, capable of furnishing any space with class and sophistication. Venetian manufacture (Venice, Northern Italy) from the
