

Ancient Missal - Roman Missal From The Decree Of The Holy And Ecumenical Council Of Trent, 173

300 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Leather

Description

Roman Missal in excellent condition, with a leather cover featuring gilded edges and bronze plate appliquéés, original period clasps--dimensions: 35 cm x 26 cm This antique volume is a Missale Romanum (Roman Missal), the liturgical book containing all the texts and chants necessary for the priest to celebrate Mass according to the Roman Rite. Here are the main details taken from the title page: Historical-Liturgical Information Tridentine Reform: The text specifies that it was restored according to the decrees of the Council of Trent (Concilii Tridentini restitutum). The Popes: It mentions the first publication under St. Pius V (S. Pii V. Pontificis Maximi jussu editum) and the subsequent revisions and approvals by Popes Clement VIII and Urban VIII. Additional Content:

Dealer

Antichita' Taddei Gilberto

arte antiquariato XVII XVIII XIX SECOLO

Tel : +39 3313821818

Mobile : +39 3313821818

via masini 135

Castelfiorentino 50051

The phrase "In quo Missæ Novissimæ Sanctorum accurate sunt dispositæ" indicates that the edition includes and carefully organizes the Masses of the saints proclaimed most recently compared to previous editions. Date and Place of Printing: City: Printed in Venice (Venetiis). Year of printing: The Roman numerals indicate MDCCXXXVI, or 1736. Printer: Printed by the renowned Ex Typographia Balleoniana (the printing house of the Baglioni family, a famous Venetian family of printers active for centuries).