Description

Tubular "Trees in the Snow" vase in multi-layered glass with a slightly flared base, signed "Daum + Nancy" on the reverse. Turning winter landscape decoration created by acid etching and hot enamel highlights, depicting bare trees standing out against a background shaded in amber, yellow and orange tones. The contrast between the dark silhouettes of the trees and the warm luminosity of the background perfectly illustrates the expertise of the Daum Nancy workshops in the art of Art Nouveau glass, where nature is a major source of inspiration. Early 20th century. Ht.: 30 cm Diam.: 12.5 cm
