Description

Refined pair of wall-mounted, teardrop-shaped console tables, crafted from carved wood and painted with a thin tempera. The console tables feature a wooden top painted to resemble a black marble with white veining, and two legs each carved with laurel leaf vines, which join in the center to form a shell. The other carving details, both on the front and sides, are classical in style and adorned with geometric motifs and floral interweaving, further accentuating their refinement. This pair of console tables exudes great style and elegance, capable of furnishing any space with a touch of class and antiquity. Tuscan manufacture, from the Directoire period, around the end of the 18th century. Dimensions: H x W x D 80 x 89 x 44cm
