where a stream meanders at the foot of a picturesque village. An arched bridge connects the two banks, while in the foreground, a graceful wader stands out among abundant vegetation of lush flowers and foliage. In the background, dwellings, slender trees and mountainous relief create a harmonious depth that invites travel and contemplation. The whole is framed by a superb, richly decorated floral border, adorned with polychrome bouquets and vegetal scrolls that underline the elegance of the composition. Dominant shades of blue, green, pink and ivory lend this work a freshness and a remarkable decorative quality. This tapestry is a fine example of the decorative art inspired by Aubusson's famous verdure. It will bring charm, refinement and authenticity to a classic interior, a home with character or a decorating project seeking an elegant, timeless atmosphere.
