Description

Pair of oils on wood panel - "École 1830" Still life with bouquets of flowers in their original richly molded and gilded frames. This elegant pair of oil paintings on panel presents two floral compositions in the spirit of French still lifes from the first half of the XIXe century. Each work features a bouquet of deep, refined tones, including roses, peonies, wildflowers and garden flowers, standing out against a dark background that accentuates the chromatic richness of the whole. The panels are inserted in their important antique wood and gilded stucco frames, profusely carved with vegetal friezes, pearls and foliate motifs. Each painting bears an engraved cartouche "École 1830", underscoring the inspiration or stylistic attribution to French painting of the early XIXe century. The ensemble
