Description

"Pharaoh" table lamp by Maison Deknudt This gilded brass table lamp incorporates the image of a pharaoh into its design. It is largely inspired by the worldwide infatuation with ancient Egypt that swept Europe following the great exhibitions devoted to King Tutankhamun in the late 1960s and early 1970s. Set on a base of Black Mazy marble, the lamp features a black pagoda-style shade whose gold interior adds to its glamorous appearance. The contrast between the matte black exterior and the highly reflective gold lacquered interior surface of the shade acts as a visual reflector, projecting a warm, dramatic glow onto the gilded brass sculpture. The lamp features 3 light points; the block switch offers 3 functional positions, allowing users to switch on 1, 2 or all 3 light points simultaneously. The lamp is in very
