Arc's liberation of Saint-Pierre-le-Moûtier on November 4, 1429, the town commissioned a statue of her liberator. Her bust Le Soir earned her a letter of praise from Alexandre Dumas fils. She made her debut at the 1878 Salon. Honorable mentions in 1883 and 1886. Octave Mirbeau (1848-1917), a journalist and writer from Normandy and an art critic, wrote of her, "A great artist, too little known, alas, and who quite simply has the soul of Donatello." She lived at 72, rue du Faubourg-Saint-Jacques in Paris. In 1876, she married sculptor François Léon Signoret and subsequently affixed his name to hers, "Signoret-Ledieu".
