Description

Charming oil on panel signed Charles Clément Perron (1893-1958), a renowned French painter particularly appreciated for his delicate floral compositions. This elegant still life depicts a bouquet of hydrangeas in pink and mauve hues, arranged in a green vase near a window bathed in light. The artist subtly plays with shadows and natural light, creating an intimate, refined atmosphere. Perron's sensitive, luminous touch perfectly highlights the freshness of the flowers and the harmony of the colors. The work is presented in a superb, richly carved antique frame, underlining all the classical charm of the composition. Dimensions: View : 22 x 27 cm Framed: 35 x 40 cm Careful delivery: 30 EUR
