

An Early Silver Merovingian Fibula-brooch, Circa 6th Century Ad

675 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Height : dimensions : 43 mm x 20 mm

Description

A Merovingian fibula in the shape of a serpent. The brooch is decorated with bright red glass paste inlays, from the radiated head, snake scales decoration on the bow, and the terminal in the form of a snake head with fine details.

As is often the case, the pin is lost. Furthermore in an excellent condition.

Dimensions 43mm x 20mm

Dealer

Wonders are Collectible

Sculptures & Works of Art

Mobile : 00 31 653179741

Utrecht 3701EV