Description

This authentic 19th-century Anglo-Indian travel chest is handcrafted from solid teak and features a beautifully carved geometric front. This exceptional piece of campaign furniture combines practical storage space with a timeless colonial appearance. The chest features a hinged lid and two drawers with characteristic C-shaped handles. The elegant base with cabriole legs and claw-and-ball feet emphasizes the artisanal craftsmanship. Original fittings and decorative nails enhance the authentic character. Ideal as a side table, storage unit, or decorative statement piece in the living room, hallway, or bedroom. A rare antique piece of furniture that adds warmth, atmosphere, and history to any interior. Good antique condition, shows signs of wear, patina and minor imperfections due to age and
