Description

This hand-carved tilt-top table from the mid-19th century is a remarkable antique piece of furniture from Lombardy, Italy, possibly manufactured in Switzerland. The table combines elegance, craftsmanship, and a practical tilting design.

The tabletop is richly decorated with five refined paintings and woodcarvings, giving this antique tilt table a unique appearance. Thanks to its space-saving design, this type of table was very popular in the 18th and 19th centuries.

A rare and decorative tilt-top table that fits perfectly into a classic, country, or eclectic interior. A special collector's item for lovers of antique furniture and European craftsmanship.Good antique condition, showing
