Description

Pair of polychrome porcelain vases with hand-painted decoration, Sèvres style - Late XIXe century Elegant pair of porcelain baluster vases with powdered pink and white backgrounds, richly decorated with gold highlights. Each vase features a delicate hand-painted gallant or mythological scene on its body, signed Lucot, in a pastel-toned landscape frame. The swan-shaped side handles with curved necks, accented with gold and white, add a touch of elegance. The vases rest on pedestals and quadrangular bases with gilded decoration, in the taste of late XIXe century Sèvres productions. The finesse of the workmanship, the quality of the decoration and the harmony of the colors make this a fine decorative and collector's item, representative of French decorative arts inspired by the XVIIIe
