Description

Oil on canvas - Scène galante in the spirit of Pater, XVIIIe siècle Charming oil on canvas depicting an elegant gallant scene in a landscaped park. The composition features several characters in XVIIIe century costumes, gathered in a verdant setting where conversations, games of seduction and aristocratic art de vivre mingle. The ensemble captivates with its balanced composition, fine attitudes and delicate palette of soft, luminous tones. This work follows in the tradition of the fêtes galantes popularized by Jean-Baptiste Pater, whose refined spirit and narrative grace it echoes. The sensitively treated landscape provides a harmonious backdrop for the elegantly dressed figures, creating an atmosphere imbued with poetry and lightness. The painting is presented in a superb finely carved wooden frame richly
