Description

Adriaen de GRYEFF (Antwerp 1657 - after 1722 Brussels), attributed to Trophies of hunting in the undergrowth Huiles on canvas, 63 x 92 cm The ARTIST Adriaen de Gryeff, also known as Adrian de Gryef, was born in Leiden and son of Jacques de Claeuw. He became a member of the Saint Luke's Guild in Ghent in 1687, then of the Antwerp Guild in 1700. He married in Antwerp and then moved to Brussels, where he lived and worked until his death in 1722. The artist is known for his landscapes and still lifes, particularly those depicting animals and game. His works are characterized by their attention to detail and naturalism, as so well represented in our paintings.
