Description

Bressanne cabinet in solid walnut and oak, regional work from the XXe century. This elegant cabinet features a front opening with two large molded leaves with moving panels, typical of Bressanne furniture. The walnut has a superb warm patina and a particularly decorative flamed grain. The rounded uprights, the overhanging cornice and the scalloped crossbar give the ensemble a great deal of elegance and softness of line. The doors are embellished with their antique metal escutcheons and plugs. The interior, spacious and functional, can accommodate closet or shelving depending on the desired use. Very beautiful storage cabinet combining authenticity, sobriety and quality regional cabinetmaking. Era: XXe century Style: Bressanne. Material: solid walnut Condition: good overall condition with
